SYOSSET, NEW YORK, August 30, 2011: Win-Holt Equipment Group, a global manufacturer of high quality Food Service and Material Handling Equipment announced today the acquisition of Commercial Stainless Fabricators, Inc. located in Marietta, Georgia.

The 60,000 square foot facility in Marietta, GA, will join Win-Holt's Custom Stainless Steel Fabrication operation and will be supported by our existing national manufacturing facilities in Pennsylvania, Texas and California.

With the acquisition of "CSF" we will be able to offer Refrigeration, Heating, Ventilation, Customized Millwork & Wood Work and full on-site factory Installation Services. This now expands our current Win-Fab™ custom stainless program to include Hoods, Spectrum® Mobile Serving Counters, Stationary Serving Counters, Chef Units, and Comm-Veyor® Conveying Systems.

Dominick Scarfogliero, Win-Holt's President & COO, stated: "CSF" is a growing and exciting company, with over 15 years of experience offering a complete line of high quality custom stainless steel fabrication. The acquisition will allow us to expand our capabilities & services, expand our product offering and expand into new markets. It allows us to offer a total stainless fabrication package."

Jason Womack, the President and Founder of Commercial Stainless Fabricators, has joined our organization as Vice President of Business Development of Custom Stainless Fabrication, reporting to Dominick Scarfogliero and will remain an intricate part of the company. Mr. Womack will focus on "CSF's" national sales and the future growth of the company.

Jonathan J. Holtz, Win-Holt's Chairman & CEO commented "By integrating "CSF's" full line of Custom Stainless Steel Fabrication, the continued companies will focus on providing the total stainless fabrication package to our customers nationwide."
